

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

MARIA DEL ROSSARIO
JARAMILLO BALLESTEROS, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

THE BOEING COMPANY,

Defendant.

C22-393 TSZ

MINUTE ORDER

The following Minute Order is made by direction of the Court, the Honorable Thomas S. Zilly, United States District Judge:

(1) Plaintiffs’ motion to remand, docket no. 14, is DENIED. On March 30, 2022, the Boeing Company (“Boeing”) removed this action from King County Superior Court under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332, 1441, and 1446. See Notice of Removal (docket no. 1). Boeing based its removal on complete diversity between the parties and an amount in controversy exceeding $75,000. See id. Plaintiffs now move to remand this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(b)(2), which prohibits removal of actions solely on the basis of diversity “if any of the parties in interest properly joined and served as defendants is a citizen of the State in which such action is brought.” For purposes of diversity jurisdiction, a corporation is a citizen of its state of incorporation and of the state where its principal place of business is located. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1).¹ Plaintiffs argue that, under the standard articulated in Hertz Corp. v. Friend, 559 U.S. 77 (2010), Boeing’s principal place of business is located in Washington. In Hertz, the Supreme Court held that a corporation’s principal place of business, or “nerve center,” is the place where the “corporation’s high level officers direct, control, and coordinate the
